5. Changes in the BMS-ANed board. Farewell to: Rianne Jacobs [RUG], Willem Kruijjer [WUR]

- Proposal for new members + voting: Dennis te Beest [WUR, treasurer]; Mar Rodriguez [LUMC; secretary]; Roula Tsonaka [LUMC, PR].
- 32 participants by the voting moment of the new board members. No objections. New members proposal is approved.

6. Acknowledgements

- Acknowledgements were given to non-board members with involvement in BMS-ANed activities: Dimitris Rizopoulos, Marianne Jonker

7. Proposal Corstenfonds: Transfer money to IBS.

- Corsten fonds are around 5000 euros, no activity regarding them, no input and no output. It is proposed to transfer the Corsten fonds to the IBS, since they also have a support program for researchers from developing countries which matches the purpose of the Corsten fonds. The proposal is accepted.

8. Financial report 2019 ANed (by Willem Kruijjer)

- We lose around 1000 eur each year. We pay to the IBS 60 dollars for each regular member, 30 for the senior and our fees are 55 and 27 eur, respectively.
- We should be above 100 members to stay with the same status at the IBS. We are now stable at around 120-130 members.
- Mark asks members to stimulate colleagues joining the society. Mark informs that he will send an email to stimulate new memberships.

9. ANed, subscription fee. Proposal: raise fees from 27 to 30 and 55 to 60 euro. (Senior member), and regular member, respectively. PhD-students still free. Simply covers the IBS contribution. Note that our fees have stayed constant for the past 10 years.

- Willem: the situation is not dramatic but we lose money every year, so we propose to raise the fee up to the level to what IBS asks from us. No objections, accepted.

10. Any other business

- No further comments

11. Closing

- The president Mark van de Wiel closes the assembly
